GUIDANCE GULF

PORT OF PATRONS

In beginning our Journey, we planned to explore the many elements of adventure. One of these aspects was surely the activities which formed our memories of days gone by and thus we christened our journey through the SEA OF ADVENTURE.

Nicker,
I'm glad you were in my chorus class. We had a real good time in here. Enjoy being out of school. I'll envy you, believe me. Love, Lisa

Vickie,
I'm signing this book on this dress because it's the weirdest place I could think of. Stay nice and don't get into too much trouble
over the summer.

Dan.

TENNIS

1. On her toes for the "Murph" Serve!
2. Ready ... Aim ... Swing!
3. Patty Roane puts a spin on this one.
4. Denise Marie serves the ball while Geri Kale prays it won't hit her.
5. "And then I hit a return ..." exclaims Ann Quinlin.

This year's girl's tennis team, under the coaching of Theresa Requet, had a building season. Their young team consisted of one senior, four juniors, and two sophomores on the varsity squad. They started off their season with a rewarding victory over Rock Island, but ended with a 2-6 record, while the junior varsity was 2-5 for the year. The outstanding doubles team of Luanne Mirr and Molly Murphy advanced to state tournament play as juniors. They lost in the first round, but they will be back next year. We would like to congratulate the entire team on their fine season.

1. Mary Moran follows through, showing her style. 2. "I'm ready whenever you are," says Cathy Klarkowski. 3. Laurie Manhard reaches for a curve. 4. Row 1: Varsity team members Luanne Mirr, Sue Dale, Mary Moran, Molly Murphy, Therese VanDeVoorde, Geri Kale, and Denise Marie. Row 2: Coach Theresa

Girls Basketball

The '78-'79 girls' basketball team played well and worked very hard with aims toward tournament play. Along with the team's height and speed, another important advantage they had was teamwork. With only three seniors on the team, they should be powerful again next year.

1. Ann Patting protects the ball as she looks for an open pass.
2. Patty Richards grabs down a rebound.
3. Luanne Mirr is guarded closely as she goes in for a shot.
4. Martha Nelson once again displays her shooting form.

Seeing you is like seeing myself,
Reminding me of what I used to be like,
Always worrying about things that weren't important,
But now I've changed.

I think of the things that matter to me,
That usually don't matter to anyone else,
And those are the things that I hold important,
And yes, I've changed.

I always thought love was important,
For love is a part of life,
But love isn't all there is to life,
Suddenly, I've changed.

Reality some say is something real,
Something you can grasp,
But many can't grasp reality,
And I know now I've changed.

The truth is what many search,
In hope to find a new life,
The truth will set YOU free,
Because the truth has set me free.

Learning is a privilege to appreciate,
Enriching our minds, don't hesitate,
School is given for one to learn,
To learn of life a mind may yearn.

Hating school is all wrong,
Four years isn't that long,
You need four years to learn to live,
Alleman has a lot to give.

Freshman year is a bit rough,
Everyone tries to act big and tough,
Until the year is completely through,
Then next year the teasing is what you'll do.

Sophomore and Junior are middle years,
Looking for a future is one of many fears,
Deciding what to do for later on,
May bring a bright and glorious dawn.

Make sure to do your best,
When you see results, you'll be at rest,
Its hard to believe the years gone so fast,
Few days are left-make them last.

Now you're a Senior and have to make up your mind,
Looking for a career-one you hope to find,
Graduation is only a few weeks away,
The rest of your life is here to stay.
